It is recommended to start applying at least six months before the start date of the course.

FAQS

Q: What is the difference between a Graduate Diploma (Level 7) and Post Graduate Diploma (Level 8) course?

A Graduate Diploma (Level 7) is more of specialised, applied learning coupled with practical knowledge (Industry led) relating to the under graduation field of study already completed by a student. In contrast a Post Graduate Diploma (Level 8) course is more academic learning (Research led).

FAQS- Have Backlogs

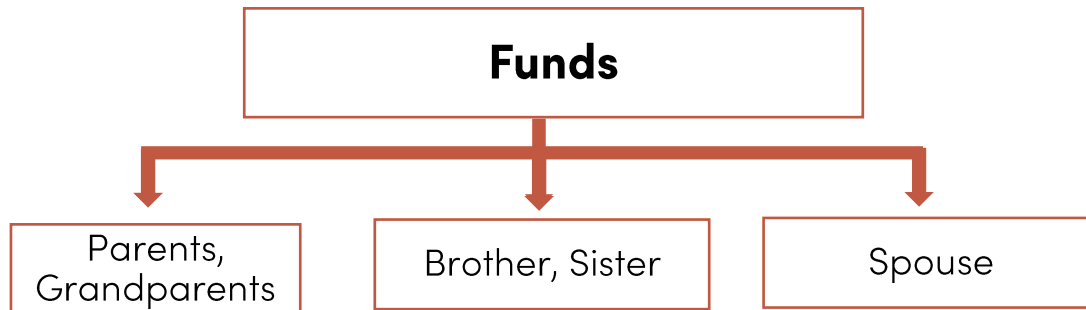

- ▶ Backlogs are not a problem in NZ, but the overall profile of the student should be good. A good profile means a degree completed within the standard period with an overall percentage of 60% to 75% in the previous qualification for Bachelors and Masters and likewise 55% to 60% for Undergraduate and Graduate diplomas.
- ▶ Documentary evidence for work experience. Please include salary statements and work experience certificate for all the positions held.
- ▶ REMEMBER, WHAT CANNOT BE VERIFIED CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

FAQS

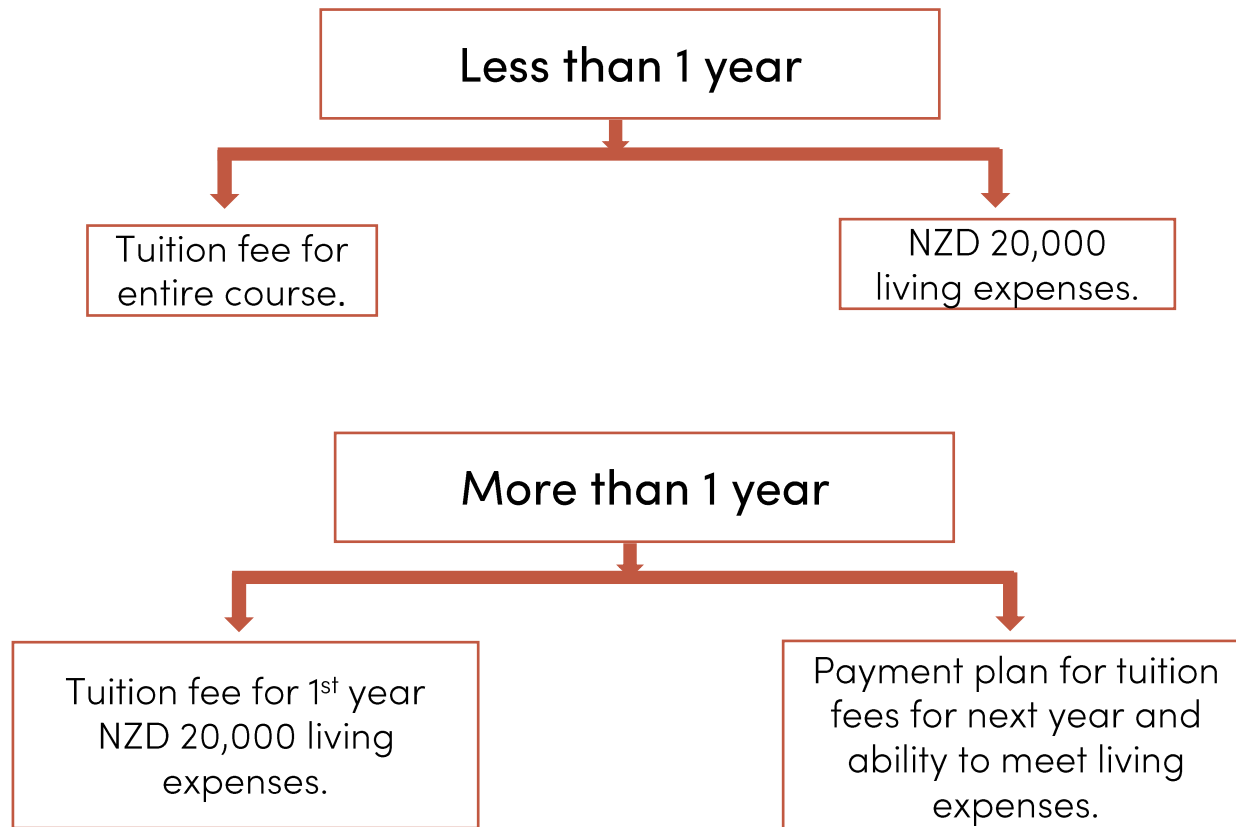

Q: Who all can be the sponsors ?

- Parents and only immediate relatives (blood relations) should ideally sponsor the student.
- The funds should be at least six months old.
- If recent funds are to be shown, then
- documentary evidence in support of every instance of recent deposits should be provided.
- You do not have to show flight tickets and medical insurance as part of funds.

FAQS

You do not have to show flight tickets and medical insurance as part of funds.

FAQS

Q: Can you describe FTS ?

- FTS is an option given at the discretion of the visa officer to students whose parents/sponsors do not have funds which are 6 months old. The student will need to transfer at least 12 months living expenses (NZD 20,000) to a bank account in NZ - ANZ Bank, in addition to paying the tuition fee of one year.
- The amount deposited in the bank is locked in a period of 12 months and then drip fed back to the student on a prearranged basis once he/she reaches New Zealand. The student will get NZ $1,667 per month towards living expenses once in NZ.

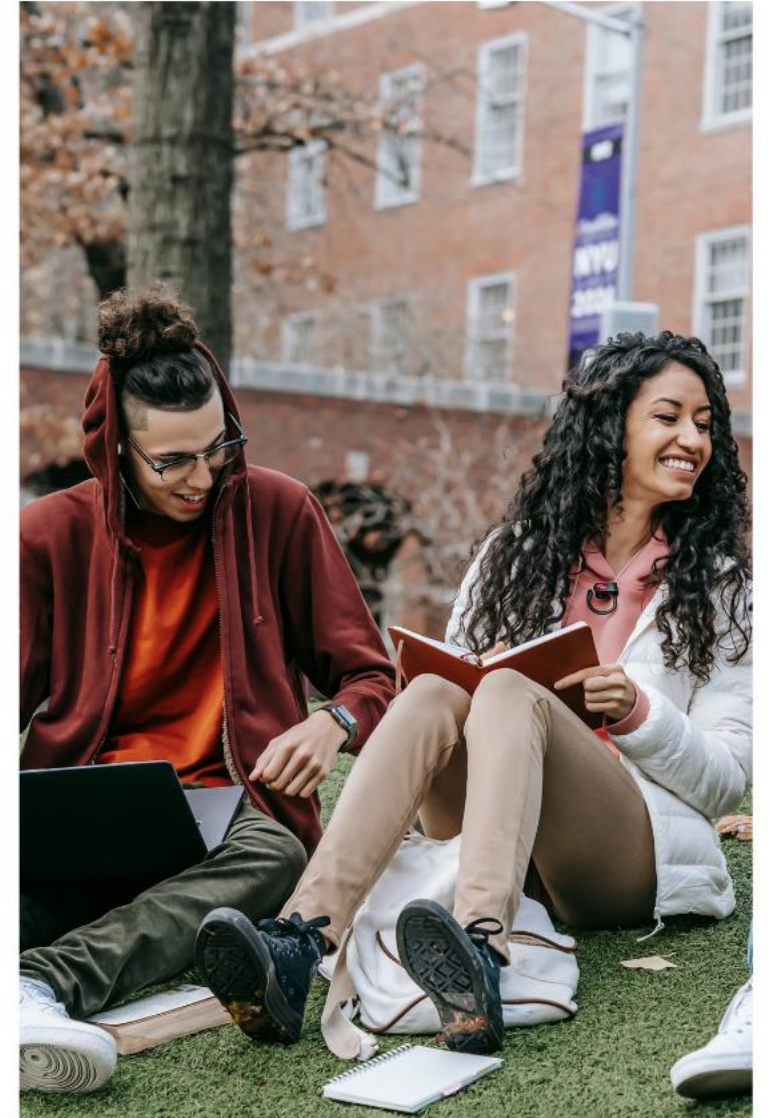

FAQS- Interview

Not every student is interviewed. An interview is conducted to get further information about a candidate and it helps INZ to take a decision on the visa application.

Q: Once visa is applied, how many days does it take to receive the Approval in Principle?

- It takes around 4-8 weeks to receive an AIP. If a student receives an interview call,
- we may expect the decision within 2-3 working days.

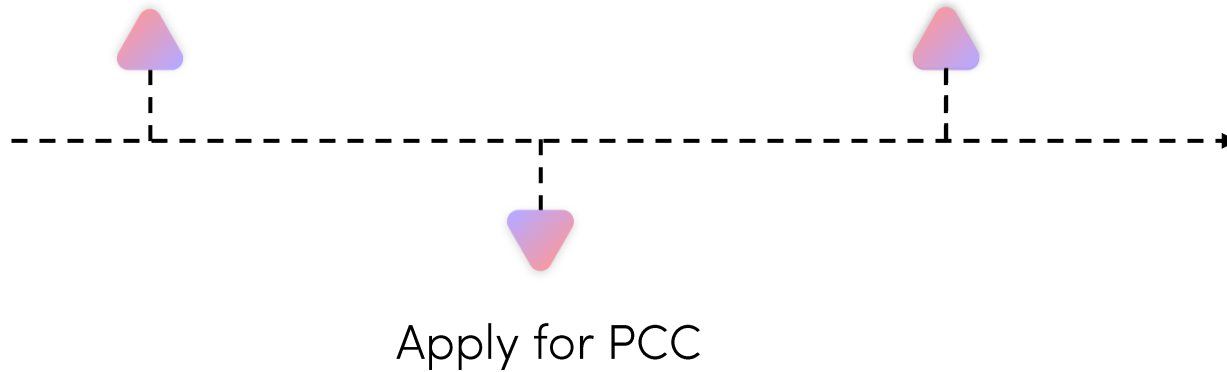

FAQS

Q: How to get a Police Clearance Certificate?

Locate the regional
Passport office

Get the original certificate bearing the official seal.

FAQS- Part-Time Jobs

- There are numerous part time jobs available for international students.
- A student can work for 20 hrs. per week during study time and up to 40 hrs. per week during holidays.
- The minimum wage rate in New Zealand is $21.2 per hour.

FAQS-Visa Rejection

Q: If a visa is rejected once, is it possible to reapply?

If the student gets a rejection on grounds that can be rectified, we can make the changes in the visa file and reapply for a positive outcome.

Q: How many times can one apply for Visa if rejected?

There is no limitation on the number of times one can apply but the grounds for rejection should be such that there is a possibility for the previous outcome to be overturned with proper rectification.

If a student has furnished a fraudulent document or lied about a previous visa rejection, we will not entertain the case for reapplication.
